

Short coffee break

11:30-12:15

Dagmar Rychnovská
Anticipating insecurity in biobanking

Lunch break at Restaurant Florentin – just across the street

13:15-14:00

Christian Haddad
*The politics of antibiotics innovation:
re-examining the role of pharmaceuticalization in global health security*

14:00-14:45

Lisa Lehner
*'OneHealth' at the Boundary.
Dissecting Politics of transdisciplinary collaboration under the rule of pandemic preparedness*

14:45-15:00

Wrap up and final discussion

International Workshop

Health in international relations:
configurations of knowledge, power and policy

September 26, 2019

Austrian Institute for International Affairs – oip, Vienna

Program

9:30- 9:45

Introduction and first cup of coffee

9:45-10:30

Stefan Elbe

Bio-informational Diplomacy: Data-sharing, health emergencies, and sequential life

10:30-11:15

Anna Pichelstorfer & Katharina Paul

The Workshop is co-hosted and supported by the Austrian Institute for International Affairs – oip, the University of Vienna and the Horizon 2020-funded project InsSciDE
Inventing a shared Science Diplomacy in Europe